Dear ACS friends

Those of us that attended ACS 7 remember the heart touching and culturally profound lecture that Rina Swentzell gave in her keynote speech in Ghost Ranch (not to mention her humble yet unavoidable presence throughout the meeting). As we informed you, Rina passed away last year quite unexpectedly. There will be a memorial for her in the School of Architecture and Planning building on the University of New Mexico Campus on Saturday April 2nd from 2:00 to 3:00 pm.

Although most ACS members are not close enough to attend, perhaps this announcement may be helpful for those of you who are in the vicinity. We heard that ACS members Karla Britton and Norman Crowe will be there.

Julio
