

Dear friends,

Professor Kevin Ladd (professor of psychology at Indiana University South Bend and an ACS member) is serving on the Board of Advisors for a recently posted RFP related to the topic of prayer (www.ssrc.org/programs/new-directions-in-the-study-of-prayer/ <<http://www.ssrc.org/programs/new-directions-in-the-study-of-prayer/>>). While architecture is not specifically mentioned in the RFP, there is a lot of room for architects to collaborate across disciplines on relevant creative projects.

We both believe that some of you (ACS members) may be interested in this opportunity. If so, please, visit the web link above.

Cheers!

Julio

ps: Thank you Professor Ladd !
