

Dear ACS members,

It is with great pleasure that we share with you two important announcements to the life of our Forum for Architecture, Culture and Spirituality (ACS).

First is to inform you of our completely new website. We have updated, deleted and/or added content based on the use the old site received over the past few years. Please, go and explore it. Tom and Julio spent a big chunk of their summer working on it. The URL is the same as always:

<http://www.acsforum.org/>

We sincerely hope you like it. Tell us what you think and if you have anything else you'd like to see in it. For any of that, contact them directly. Notice that we have included a "Member News" item. If you have something to share with all of us, then, please send it along (but, before you do, review the rules).

The second announcement is about our next annual ACS Symposium. It will take place in Toronto, Canada, in June 2014. ACS 6 is co-chaired by ACS members Roberto Chiotti, David Pereyra and Dennis Winters. More information about the Symposium will become available by the end of September.

Thus, with great hope and renewed passion, we start one more year of existence.

Cheers!
